

ST. MARY'S ICSE SCHOOL

KOPARKHAIRANE, NAVI MUMBAI

ELT – Fun with Grammar, Vocabulary Skills and Creative Writing Workshop was held on 17th Nov, 2017. Teachers Mrs. Kavita Malgi and Mrs. Sarabjot Kaur attended the workshop.

The speaker, Mrs. Mini Joseph has been a trainer for Regular English, Business English and for communication skills for 20 years. In 2009 she won a 'Fulbright Distinguished Award in Teaching' scholarship and travelled to USA. She is the recipient of two international awards for her articles in Germany and in Switzerland.

The workshop was divided in three parts. First was Fun with Grammar, in which different words were given to the teachers and their synonyms were discussed. The teachers were divided into groups of 5 each. These words were read aloud.

In the second part, subject and verb agreement was discussed in detail. Teachers were given different sentences and the subject and verb agreement was discussed.

In the third part of the workshop, four pictures were shown and the teachers were expected to write a poem based on those pictures. This was the creative writing section. Every group leader read the poem loudly.

The speaker, Mrs. Mini Joseph appreciated the skills of the teachers who wrote the poems so well. This enriching workshop was attended by a total of 63 teachers. These included the teachers from ICSE, CBSE, SSC board schools. It was a good learning experience for all those who attended.
