ST. MARY'S ICSE SCHOOL INTERNATIONAL LITERACY DAY

September 8th, 2017 was declared as World Literacy Day by UNESCO on Nov 17th, 1965.

Its aim is to highlight the importance of literacy to individuals, communities and societies. It marks the international celebration and awareness campaign on literacy.

We, the students of, St. Mary's ICSE School, celebrated World Literacy Day on 8th September, 2017. Students of class V – C sang a song to pervade the importance and value of education.

Students of class V – B performed a street play to promote education, showcasing the wrong and orthodox beliefs of our society and expressing about the extraordinary value of written word and the requirement to encourage literacy in our country.

Students of class V-A entertained the audience with a dance performance that showed the paramount worth of education that brings a positive change in our world.

This was followed by our Principal ma'am's address to the students. She said that today's youth should use education as a tool to equip themselves with skills to create a better world and a good life.

The program ended on the exultant note – Education is the only key to success.
